

EVUM Motors is a young and innovative company, offering sustainable mobility solutions for everyone, worldwide. If you too want to make the world a better place for us and for future generations, become part of our team.

Working student / trainee / bachelor or master thesis Business Development (m/f/d)

These are your tasks:

- Carrying out market and competition analyzes
- Assistance in the processing of business field analyzes
- Evaluation of economic and technical performance parameters
- Autonomous development and presentation of results
- Execution of workshops in business development and marketing

This is what you have:

- First experience in business development, marketing or sales
- Sound MS Office experience
- Interest in e-mobility
- Hands-on mentality
- Strong analytical and communication skills
- Independent and structured way of working

This is what you get:

- Active participation in a highly innovate and sustainable e-mobility provider
- A motivated, innovative team and exciting tasks in the field of e-mobility to work with
- Fresh fruit and free drinks as an energy source
- High quality canteen
- Regular team events

If you are excited by e-mobility and enjoy working in a start-up environment? Please feel free to apply! You are more than welcome to call directly:

Michael Kinne • (0049)89-90162643 • career@evum-motors.com

